-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miwa (US 4727430).

Referring to claim 1:

Miwa discloses a method of automatically selecting screen characteristics values to be used for printing a color image, comprising the steps of:

forming a digital representation of said color image, said digital representation comprising a plurality of separations (col. 3, lines 23-25);

dividing at least one said plurality of separations into a plurality of regions (col. 3, lines 32-37); and assigning at least one screen characteristic value to each said plurality of regions (col. 3, lines 38-42).

Referring to claim 2:

Miwa further discloses in the above method (claim 1), that the step of dividing further comprises creating a plurality of equal-sized regions (col. 4, lines 9-14).

Referring to claim 3:

Miwa further discloses in the above method (claim 1), that the step of dividing comprises creating a plurality of low color-variation regions. Since each of the plural separations are color component separations and each of the separations can be divided regions based on density ranges (col. 4, lines 14-20), then the regions are inherently of low color-variation.

Referring to claim 6:

Miwa further discloses in the above method (claim 1), at least one screen characteristic is chosen from the group consisting of a screen angle and a screen dot shape (col. 3, lines 43-53 and col. 4, lines 21-45).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art searched and of record neither anticipates nor suggests in the claimed combinations, finding the most frequent screen characteristic value computed for said pixels in said region and assigning said most frequent screen characteristic value to each one of said pixels in said region.

Claims 7-11 are allowed. The prior art searched and of record neither anticipates nor suggests in the claimed combinations, providing image data streams to a screen generator, each said image data stream spanning at least one of said plurality of regions, and said image data streams additionally comprising at least one screen characteristic value assigned to each of said plurality of regions spanned by said data stream and a pixel count for each of said regions within said data stream.
